DEWAN'S OFFICE
Received on
9. NOV. 1927
Reg. No. Sft. Memo. No. 4442

Respectfully submitted to the Superintendent, Dewan's Office.

The undersigned who is working in the Dewan's Personal Establishment for over a year most respectfully begs to represent that no clothing has yet been issued to him. He finds it very difficult to attend office with clean dress with the small pay that he is getting besides maintaining his family and children. He therefore most humbly prays that clothing may kindly be arranged to be issued to him.

D.K. Venkataramiah

Submitted to the Registrar.

Though the man is borne as orderly to the P.C. on the temporary establishment, he is fixed in a place which will not cease before 2 or 3 years to come. The man is appearing in a shabby dress. The annual white clothing may kindly be ordered to be issued.
